

Three exhibitions in Japan by artists from the National Association of Contemporary Printmakers and artists from the Japanese Printsaurus Association curated by our friend and great artist Takeshi Katori whom we thank.

Ikenohata Gallery, Taito-ku, Tokyo - from September 28th to October 9th: Exhibition of small format prints with 13 artists from our Association and 21 Japanese artists with two works each.

Fei art Museum, Yokohama - from October 18th to October 23rd: Exhibition "Tales of Landscapes" with 20 artists from our Association and 17 Japanese artists with two works each. Exhibition of small format prints with 13 artists from our Association and 21 Japanese artists with 2 works each.

Sasebo City Museum Shimanose Center, Nagasaki from November 22nd to November 28th: Exhibition of small format prints with 13 artists from our Association and 21 Japanese artists with two works each.

Italian artists in the exhibition "Tales of Landscape" see poster of the exhibition.

Italian artists in the exhibition of small format prints: Daniela Cataldi, Daniela Savini, Elena Monaco, Francesco Sciacaluga, Graziella Da Gioz, Guido Navaretti, Lara Monica Costa, Marcela Miranda, Marta Pilloni, Olivia Pegoraro, Sandro Bracchitta, Silvana Martignoni, Stefano Luciano