

WorldWide Prints Project

Project's objectives

The "WorldWide Prints" project is an artistic, cultural and educational initiative that aims to collect small prints from artists from all over the world to promote the knowledge and awareness of graphic art and to introduce, through the web, catalogs and exhibitions, to as many people as possible, the different ways of making graphic art in the world by comparing and uniting different nations.

Full project description available at www.incisoricontemporanei.it/it/sezioni/Project-Description_1181.htm

Summary of project specifications

- Each artist can submit one or two prints
- Prints must be donated to Associazione Nazionale Incisori Contemporanei because the project is a long term project with several exhibitions. A donation certificate will be sent via email. Should one day the Association been dissolved, all the prints will be donated to an important Italian or foreign museum.
- Paper size: must be exactly 200x200 mm
- Printed image size: must have both height and width bigger than 100 mm
- Prints cannot be exlibris
- Images of prints, artists photo and biography of each artist will be published on website
- Deadlines: There is not a precise deadline because the project will be a continuous on-going project and several exhibitions will be held- Artists can join the project at any time. However, while there is no deadline for participating in the project, there will be deadlines that we'll communicate from time to time for each specific exhibition(s).

Digital material for the Web to be sent to wwprintmaking@gmail.com:

- Picture in jpeg format of print(s) and photo of artist
- Print(s) data: title, year, techniques, size in mm
- Short artist biography in English (max 1200 character)

Send the prints.

If the prints are sent from a Country that is not part of the European Community, please write on the envelope/package “PRINTED MATTER – NO COMMERCIAL VALUE” and send as a normal letter, NOT AS A REGISTERED LETTER to avoid paying customs fee.

Send the prints to the following address:

Associazione Nazionale Incisori Contemporanei

Via Feratine 19A

31044 Montebelluna

ITALY